Cadwell Park, spectacular for riders and spectators alike.....

Cadwell Park sees us past the mid point of the 2021 season (already !!!) and this demanding 2.17 mile circuit is defined by "The Mountain", but there is so much more to this track than just that iconic stretch of tarmac. It demands commitment and precise riding and a well set up bike to get the best out of it.

We have already visited Brands Hatch, Donington and Castle Combe and seen a few upsets, Cadwell always sees a raft of wild-card riders that love the unique challenge and are keen to show the current series top men the way around.

Anyone with an eye on a coveted championship at this stage needs to keep the pressure on but keep calm as a slip-up now could prove disastrous for any title aspirations. Many times a title from runner has had hopes dashed with a long run off on to the grass or a careless slip-off exiting Barn Corner, under the trees !!!

Cadwell is a great place to watch racing, especially in some glorious July mid-summer sunshine... (fingers crossed)
